7. (Unclassified - GLC) Dropped by the office of Senator George McGovern and advised Miss Pat Donovan that our people were pulling together some material in response to the Senator's request for estimates of the percentage of actual Communists in the Vietcong movement. I advised Miss Donovan we should have something for her within the next few days.

8. (Unclassified - GLC) At his request, I met with Jack Norpel, a recent addition to the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff. Norpel was interested in being briefed on the ground rules involving [REDACTED] materials and also asked for background information on former Soviet Ambassador Dobrynin.
